Senior Class History

The question in the minds of the new Ashley Freshmen Phyllis Bohler, Dick Bacon, Dorothy Shipe, Shirley Sherwood, Helen Stults, Alice Jane Mortorff, Janice Frederick, Dallas McClellen, Jim Cavinder, Beverly Barker, Curtis Ayers, Walter Clyburn, Herman Lehman, and LaVon Bender, of 1946, was, "What do you think the Fairfield kids will be like?"

While on the other hand, the Fairfield Students Beverly Stomm, Nelda Deetz, Melda Stackhouse, Ora Stackhouse, Earl Altimus, Dean Brenneman, Joe Miller, Phyllis Hanes, Phyllis Harmes, Robert Weirich, Gilbert Smith, John Warner, and Marjorie Kline, who were just getting into their school busses were asking, "What do you suppose the Ashley "freshies" will be like?"

Questions were answered and doubts were removed from the minds of all when we arrived at the Ashley High School. The halls were filled with congregating students discussing their summer thrills.

Soon everyone was acquainted and we were feeling as proud as punch since we were finally full fledged Freshmen. Each of us was anxious to do just the right thing in order that he might disprove that age old fable of green Freshmen.

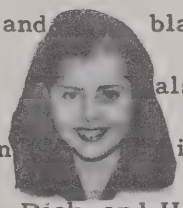
Start-ing off the year with a bang, we elected for our officers: Nelda Deetz, President; Phyllis Hanes, Secretary and Treasurer; Janice Frederick, Reporter; and Miss Donnabelle Secrist as our class sponsor. On the sports side we were proud of Corky, Curtis, and Bob S. who were on both the baseball and basketball teams.

Two very successful parties were held that year. One was a rollicking hayride which led us to Shirley Sherwood's home for a night of fun and refreshments. The other party was at Silvermoon skating rink where we polished the floors and filled the room with happiness.

The Sophomore year was excitingly different, for by that time we were old hands at playing the role of high school students and proved it by choosing such officers as: Gilbert Smith for President; Janice Frederick, Vice-President; Alice Jane Mortorff, Reporter; Marjorie Kline, Secretary and Treasurer; and Mr. Paul Everitts, the new coach and History teacher, for our class sponsor.



Class colors, red and black, along with the red rose, our class flower, were also selected.

Our representation in the sports field was especially fine, for Curtis, Dick, and Herman were on the basketball team; Gilbert, and John Warner, were baseball stars, and Corky and Bob S. were on both teams. However, Curtis was unable to play baseball in the spring because of an injured leg. Final proof of our athletic ability came when our boys won the inter-class tourney and again when Corky got a trophy for the best free throw percentage.

Sophistication and dignity marked our attitudes when we finally attained our Junior year. Our class officers for these two terms were: John Warner, President; LaVon Bender, Vice-President; Marjorie Kline, Secretary; Alice Jane Mortorff, Reporter, and Mrs. Harold Arney, sponsor.

A potluck supper at Ashley then a movie at Angola was the only party for that year. Our chief concern was the class tourney and our efforts were not wasted for again our boys were proclaimed victors.

Activities held us in a whirl in the Senior year. We were in a cyclone of annual and play work and graduating. We did, however, find time to elect John Warner, Pres- ident; Bob Schweitzer, Vice-President; Nelda Deetz, Secre-tary and Alice Jane Mortorff, Treasurer, for our class officers. Mr. Fred Frederick is our sponsor.

We are winding up our career as high school students on the spool of time and looking back at the wonderful times we "Green Freshmen" had getting acquainted.

Two Seniors griping: I hear they marked the exams so strictly that they flunked one guy for having a period upside down.

John Warner: I want a girl that cooks, sews, keeps house, and doesn't smoke, drink or swear.

Walter Clyburn: Why don't you go to the graveyard and dig yourself up one?

Curtis Ayers: When is a doctor most annoyed?

John Miller: Gee, I don't know.

Curtis: When he is out of patients.

Senior Will

Know all men by these presents, that we, the undersigned, The Class of Nineteen Hundred Fifty, of the Ashley High School, being of sound mind and memory???? hereby make, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament; hereby removing and making void any other wills by us at any time heretofore made.

We, the Senior Class, do will and bequeath to the school as a whole our sincere hopes for the future betterment and continued leadership of the school, but we are taking along all of our memories of the days we spent at A. H. S. We would, if we saw fit, also leave our memories, but after much thought we agreed that other students, too, can find many memories just as pleasant.

To the principal and teachers we would like to will a portion of patience from each of us thus showing that we now realize how much was needed to guide us through the past four years.

To the Junior Class we not only will a paint brush to paint their numbers on the chimney, but we also wish to leave them some of the dignity we as Seniors are supposed to have. The reason for giving them this is because the dignity the class of forty-nine gave them when they were Sophomores didn't seem to help.

To the Sophomores we will our progressiveness and stick-to-it-iveness.

To the Freshmen we will our good naturedness and smiles for everyone.

To the janitor we wish to leave all our erasers to take care of any writings on the walls that may have been done by us in our younger days.

We, the following, do make, publish and declare the subjoined list of personal property in the following manner:

I, Phyllis Hanes, will my ability to go steady for two years to Anita Montgomery.

I, Walter Clyburn, will my ability to get along with Mr. Everitt to Miss Zimmerman.

I Shirley Sherwood, will my stationary to Glora Warner, hoping she uses it as well as I do.

I, James Conrad, will my ability to be on the first five of the basketball team for four years to Eddie De Luceny.

I, Marjorie Kline, will my devilishment to anyone that thinks they can get away with it as well as I.

I, Dallas McClellan, will my scientific ability to Harold Buchs.

I, Phyllis Bohler, will my calm and quiet ways to Donna Walker.

I, Bob Weirich, will my brillance to Byron Teagarden.

I, Alice Jane Mortorff, will my studying ability to Walter Silberg, with only one request that is that he uses it.

I, Dick Bacon, will my Casanova ways and my little black book to Carl Dilly.

I, Dorothy Shipe, bequeath my long black hair to Opal Mae Dick.

I, Bob Schweitzer, will my ability to type with speed and accuracy to Laurance Wiler.

I, Janice Frederick, will my 4 years of yell leading experience to Bette Ann McClish, in hopes that she enjoys it the way I have.

I, Curtis Ayers, will my hitting power in baseball to Ralph Clark, who needs it.

I, Nelda Deetz, will my nice boisterous and jolly manners to Jane Stoy.

I, Dean Brennneman, will my innocent looks after being punished to Harold Arney, Jr.

I, Melda Stackhouse, will my hilarious ways to the quiet Donna King.

I, John Miller, will my ability to sleep in the assembly to Jerry Parnell, to keep him out of mischief.

I, Phyllis Harmes, will my natural curly hair to Jewell Hall, if she'll promise to appreciate it more than I do.

I, John Warner, will my ability to get along easily with others and to be so well liked to just anyone who might need it.

I, Earl Altimus, will my ability to find love in my Senior year to Bobby Bowman.

I, LaVon Bender, will my ability to be swoon material to the Freshman and Sophomore girls to Charles Hampshire.

In witness whereof, we have subscribed our names and caused our seal to be affixed this, the 20th day of May, in the year nineteen hundred fifty.

Dear Mrs. Arney,

In answer to your inquiries of the Senior Class of 1950, I have secured the following information.

Earl Altimus is a famous singer at the Stork Club. He has a large listening audience from dark to dawn.

Curtis Ayers is fabulously wealthy. Playing big league baseball has agreed with his pocketbook.

Richard Bacon makes a fine doctor. Every nurse is charmed by his winsome ways.

LaVon Bender is in television now. Every wave in that thick black hair shows up perfectly.

Phyllis Bohler has her own place of business. She is an excellent beautician and is famous for her unusual hair styles.

Dean Brenneman is a pilot with the Pan American Airlines. He sometimes works for advertising agencies, writing their products' names in the sky.

James Conrad, who won fame in high school, has continued his good work in basketball and is now playing with the Redheads. Between games his daughter is the center of his attraction.

Walter Clyburn is an executive in the Ho Hum Pillow factory. He tests them for sleeping ability. This is a full time job.

Janice Frederick is the first lady coach of Notre-Dame's football team. This is her third year of straight wins and no losses.

Phyllis Harmes is modeling the fashions Alice Jane Mortorff is showing in her new Paris Shoppe which is doing very well here in the metropolis.

Marjorie Kline is a registered nurse at the Poer Memorial Hospital.

Dallas McClellan is manager of the Fix-It-All shop which is in the old Town Hall (we have a new gym.)

John Miller is the human guinea pig for the No Nod laboratories in Hudson.

Nelda Deetz is very capably directing our band which has taken the state honors in marching and playing.

Bob Schweitzer has been crowned the writer of the day by Phyllis Hanes, a noted music and literary critic.

Dorothy Shipe has become a famous writer of stories written especially for her children.

Shirley Sherwood has taken over Miss Dix's column, giving advice to the lovelorn. She is using her maiden name for her career.

Bob Weirich has his own comedy program on Ashley's first radio station, ACES.

Melda Stackhouse has a full time job. She is a farmer's wife raising a fine crop of kids.

John Warner is a conservation officer in the Wild's of Canada, it is rumored he is protecting several little dears.

I hope this report suffices your desires to know about the class of 1950. Don't you think they have done well?

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Fred Frederick

Junior Events

The class of '51 started the year with a bang under the iron hands and dainty fists of President Bob Hartman, Vice-President Billy Chrisman, Secretary Dixie Casselman, Treasurer, Helen Stomm and Sponsor Dollie Arney. The first big thing we did was to choose a play and a play cast. The play got under way on November 9th when a scared, but game, bunch of Juniors laid 'em in the aisles with laughter. The play was a success! Next we tackled the ball games-ice cream sales with a new determination to make the people eat it and like it! Along about Christmas time we decided to take time out for a little fling; so we exchanged names and took on the role of Santa. A pot-luck supper served to keep up our strength and some crazy antics by the braver set rounded out the evening of fun. In just a little while wel'll count our assets and plan our little jaunt with the Seniors to--your guess is as good as mine.

Harold Arney: (who was called to fix the doorbell) Well I guess they ain't nobody home, I've rung four times.

Earl Altimus: Did you ever hear about the ocean?
Tom Harmes: No, what about it?
Earl: It's too deep for you.

Bob Hartman: I lost my dog, and I don't know what I'm going to do.
Duane Heller: Why not advertise for him.
Bob: My dog can't read advertisements.

Teacher: Jim, what is a cannibal?
Jim Redmon: I don't know.
Teacher: Well! If you ate your father and mother, what would you be?
Jim: I'd be an orphan.

Paul Everitts: What happened in the year of 1809?
Walt Silberg: Lincoln was born.
Paul: Correct, now what happened in 1812?
Walt: Lincoln had his third birthday.

Tenth Grade Views

At the beginning of our 10th school year the Sophomore class chose Mr. Everitts as our class sponsor and elected officers as follows: President-Juanita Etheridge, Vice-President-Tommy Brand, Secretary-Ronald Parker, Reporter-Donna Walker, Treasurer-Tommy Harmes, Historian-LaVon Hasselman.

We chose white and gold as our colors and the American Beauty Rose as our flower. We held a party at the home of one of our classmates, Elenor Mavis. We square danced for entertainment. This gave us the idea for a public square dance which was held Nov. 5, 1949 at the Town Hall. We made $60.

Mr. Frederick: Why were you late this morning, Harlan?
Harlan Strite: School started before I got here.

Lavon Hasselman: Why do you think my lips are like an old coat?
Duane Heller: They should be pressed.

Bad habits are like a comfortable bed--easy to get into but hard to get out of.

Ninth Grade News

The Freshman Class had their first class meeting September 27th and elected our officers. Those elected were: President-Glora Warner, Vice-President-John Shipe, Secretary and Treasurer-Sheila Forrest, Reporter-Betty Jo Parnell and Sponsor-Mr. Fee.

October 25th we decided on having a skating party, and it was arranged for November 28th. We started our treasure with $22 as a result of the good turn out at the party.

Mr. Fee: What is a skeleton?
Dick Greenwalt: A skeleton is a stack of bones with the person scraped off.

Miss Taylor: When did Caesar defeat the greatest number?
Tuffy Wiler: On examination.

Merritt Shipe: Did you shave this morning?
Lynn Johnson: Yes.
Merritt Shipe: Well, next time, stand closer to the razor.

Baseball

The Aces sported a very successful baseball campaign this season, winning the newly organized Tri-County League championship with a record of nine wins and only one defeat. The lone defeat came at the hands of the Albion team by a 4-3 score.

The Tri-County League consisted of the following schools: Butler, Angola, Waterloo, Rome City, Albion, and Ashley. All teams engaged all other opponents two times. Lost by graduation are Cork Conrad, reliable backstop, John Warner, third baseman, Coke Ayers, left fielder and leading batsman, and Bob Schweitzer, center fielder. Back for next year's team are "Fat" Buchs, Frank Ellert, Max Gipple, Ralph Clark, Dale Altimus, Tuffy Wiler, Walt Silberg, and Leo Pfefferkorn.

Following are the scores of the games played:

Ashley-11	Butler-8	Ashley-6	Butler-1
Ashley-11	Angola-3	Ashley-22	Angola-3
Ashley-17	Waterloo-3	Ashley-11	Waterloo-3
Ashley-17	Rome City-6	Ashley-12	Rome City-4
Ashley-3	Albion-4	Ashley-9	Albion-0

Basketball

Success was with the Aces as they went to the final of the Sectional before tasting defeat at the hands of the Auburn Red Devils 54-45.

The Aces had a good season winning 18 games and losing just 7. They started the campaign by losing to Salem's Cardinals 53-47 and dropping the second to Spencerville in an overtime 48-47. Then they started on their winning ways beating Garrett, Auburn, P. Lake, Montpelier, O., Avilla, St. Joe, Wolcottville, Edon, O., before bowing to Waterloo in a hard fought contest 45-44. In county tourney action the Aces nipped Butler in the first game 37-36, then gained sweet revenge by beating Waterloo 36-28, but lost to Spencerville in the finals 57-53. We started off the new year losing to Waterloo 57-45, then disposed of Metz, P. Lake, Hamilton, Butler, and Fremont. We lost the little red, white, and blue jug battle to Salem again, this time by a 62-52 score. Thus we ended the 1949-1950 season.

EDITORIAL

SPORTSMANSHIP

By Janice Frederick

What is your idea of sportsmanship? Possibly our ideas will all differ somewhat, but they all should boil down to the same thing. Observance of the rules and courtesy in playing the game are two definitions the reliable, "old Webster" gives.

There is the saying "all is fair in love and war." We will all agree that basketball isn't love and it isn't war. I think that if we had fewer rules and no referees to see that we played according to Hoyle our much loved sport would be a

Red & Blue

Originally the Red and Blue was school items. When Beverly Deter became editor we decided to revamp our style. We gave it the name, "The Red and Blue". We were given a prominent spot on the inside of the paper. We have tried to keep it filled with editorials, high school news, grade news, and little quips which we think may be of interest to its readers.

The "Red and Blue" has been made possible through co-operation of Mr. and Mrs. Deter, Mrs. Arney, the grade teachers, and all else who have participated in its makeup.

This year we are proud of our record of not missing one school week of publication.

Boys' Chorus

Twenty boys came out for Glee Club. What we don't have in quality, we do have in quantity--and we like it too. We got to sing in the Christmas pageant. Not every school our size can get the athletes to participate in such an activity. We are proud of us.

The officers for this year were: President-James Conrad; Secretary-Carl Dilley; Reporter-Francis Ellert; Librarian-Bobby Weirich; Accompanist-Betty Jo Parnell.

Girls' Chorus

Forty girls meet on Tuesdays to exercise their vocal chords. Other years we have had two periods per week, but since the boys requested a chorus period we have Tuesdays and they have Thursdays. We helped with the Christmas pageant in which about 300 singers and players took part. Second semester will be a busy time for us as we have Spring Concert, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

The officers for this year were: President, Nina Reinoehl; Secretary, Nelda Deetz; Reporter, Maryellyn Smith; Librarian, Phyllis Hanes; Accompanist, Marlene Brenneman.

Mr. Frederick: Bob Weirich looks like a general with all those medals on his shirt.
Mrs. Soudah: Yes, general nuisance.
Mr. Frederick: I didn't know they gave medals for that.

Future Farmers of America

The Ashley Chapter of Future Farmers of America are the up and coming lads that belong to the nation wide organization that means so much to the welfare of prosperity. There are 39 members in the club. We initiated 14 green hands into the organization this year, and we expect to have several members meet the requirements for Chapter Farmer Degree before the year is over.

The purpose of the organization is to develop competent, agressive, rural and agricultural leadership. We hope to increase the scope of our projects thru this organization. We plan to send delegates to the State Convention at Purdue; sponsor 4-H Club Work, and Junior Leader work; and we hope to make a two or three day trip this summer.

The chapter is engaged in a program of making money to carry out these plans. We sell mail box names, Vitality Garden Seed, jello, Coca-Cola and chocolate milk during the school year.

Officers of the chapter for this year are Dean Brenneman, President, Robert Hartman, Vice-President, LaVon Bender, Secretary, Carl Dilley, Treasurer, Robert Weirich, Reporter, Ernie Ladd, Watch Dog, and Wade Libey, Advisor.

Class Poem

We're the class of 1950!
Twelve years we've completed
Jolly times and education
Have brought us through undefeated.

Earl Atlimus, very clever,
Found his lass
To our surprise
In another class.

Curtis Ayers, a lad
With the keenest of mind,
Can answer a question
Of most any kind.

Richie Bacon of college dreams,
Wisdom rare,
Big name, fame,
Extending everywhere.

LaVon Bender, so handsome,
Admired and desired,
His life will read
Successful and retired

Dean Brenneman, clever lad,
Of adventurous dreams
Likes farming best
For his future schemes.

Phyllis Bohler and Bob Weirich,
A lad and lass, we see,
Each to each like
Honey is to a bee.

Corky Conrad, a good youth,
Sees enjoyment in sports,
Plays in all games,
We see by the reports.

Walter Clyburn, joke boy
Ambition---none,
Ten years from now
We'll see what he has done.

Nelda Deetz, a steady worker,
Studies with care
Never complains
Her best she would share.

Janice Frederick, cheerleader,
Friends by the score,
Loves flatter, likes chatter
Who could ask for more?

Phyllis Hanes, blondie,
Kind hearted, true,
Liked vacation best
Skating and Eddie, too.

Phyllis Harmes, who has
Blue eyes and a curly head,
Hopes someday to a Junior
To be wed.

Marjorie Kline, who is
On the beam,
Will use her tricks
In many a future scheme.

Dallas McClellan, who likes
Mathematics second best,
It seems some lass will
Satisfy the rest.

Alice Jane Mortorff, an artist,
To graduate she aspires,
College life and happiness
Will top her desires.

John Miller, who is Always late,
Hates studying, enjoys sleep,
And will someday find his fate.

Bob Schweitzer, undecided,
To be a pharmacist or an engineer
But to graduate from college
Will bring him joy and cheer.

Shirley Sherwood, a lass
Who is always nigh,
Only perks up when
A certain guy passes by.

Dorothy Shipe, so dainty,
Looks with far away gaze,
Future hope, married life
One of these days.

Melda Stackhouse, shy and sweet,
Got her man
When all the rest
Were asleep.

John Warner, who is
From the farm,
To man, beast or bird
Will do no harm.
